Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-20, 35-45, drawn to a method of stereolithographic fabrication and article, classified in class 264, subclass 401.
 - II. Claims 21-34, 35-45, 69-82, drawn to a release article, classified in class 428, subclass 40.1+.
 - III. Claims 46-59, drawn to a first stereolithographic apparatus, classified in class 700, subclass 118+.
 - IV. Claims 60-68, drawn to a method of removing a fabricated object, classified in class 264, subclass 340.
 - V. Claims 83-91, drawn to a second stereolithographic apparatus, classified in class 264, subclass 401.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II, III, V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, Invention I has separate utility such as stereolithographic fabrication methods not utilizing a fabrication tank. See MPEP § 806.05(d).
3. Inventions I and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as a method of removing a non-stereolithographically fabricated articles. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Art Unit: 1773

4. Inventions IV and III, V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, Invention IV has separate utility in stereolithographic fabrication methods not utilizing a fabrication tank. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

5. Inventions III and V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions utilize different modes of operation (vacuum vs. adhesive).

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Election/Restrictions

8. This application contains claims directed to the following categories (a)-(b) of patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

(A) mode of attachment;

(i) via adhesive (e.g., claims 5-11, 21-34, 35-45, 46-59, 61-64, 76-80, etc.);

(ii) via vacuum (e.g., claims 12-13, 65, 81-82, 83-91, etc.)

(B) surface configuration;

Art Unit: 1773

(i) planar (e.g., claims 27, 37, 73, etc.)

(ii) non-planar or contoured (e.g., claims 28, 38-39, 75, etc.)

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species in each category (A) through (B) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

9. Due to the number of groups and species involved, this restriction/election requirement has been presented in written form.

Art Unit: 1773

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

11. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Vivian Chen whose telephone number is (571) 272-1506.
